Bill # SB0253

Title: File campaign advertising text with commissioner of political practices

Status: As Introduced

FISCAL SUMMARY

	FY 2008 Difference	FY 2009 Difference	FY 2010 Difference	FY 2011 Difference
Expenditures:
General Fund	$4,400	$0	$0	$0
Revenue:
General Fund	$0	$0	$0	$0
Net Impact-General Fund Balance	($4,400)	$0	$0	$0

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions:

1. Rulemaking is required. The total estimated cost for contracted legal expenses in FY 2008 assuming a low to moderate level of difficulty is $4,000. The cost of contracted services to have the proposed rules formatted per ARM regulations will add $400 in FY 2008 (40 hours @ $10/hour.) Total rulemaking estimated at $4,400.
2. Since filing is voluntary and the potential fine for false swearing is significant ($5,000), parties may opt to simply not file. Under this assumption, there may be no additional costs.
3. If Montana broadcasters jointly determine that it will be their policy that all advertising subject to these provisions must be filed with the Commissioner of Political Practices (CPP), the costs of the additional office functions would include: filing and storage, responding to inquiries regarding those filings, and on-line disclosure by scanning and posting of the relevant documents to the CPP website.
4. Most significantly, costs could become relatively high if this new program prompts formal complaints to CPP. Under this scenario, costs for contracted legal services (which are paid on a time and materials basis) could be significant.
5. The fiscal impact of this legislation cannot be measured.

	FY 2008 Difference	FY 2009 Difference	FY 2010 Difference	FY 2011 Difference

Dear Members of the Senate Committee on State Administration:

I recently found out I am going to be a grandmother for the first time.

My hope is that my grandchild will not have to grow up in the shadow of endless war.

Some say war is inevitable. I do not believe that. We can take a small step to begin to find another way by passing SJ 9.

I don't believe our economy in Montana or in the country as a whole should be based on war. Corporations such as United Technologies, General Electric (think NBC), Haliburton, and their CEOs all benefit from our addiction to war. Over 50 percent of the U.S. economy is tied to the war industry, ultimately financed by us, the taxpayers, and sales of weapons of mass destruction to other countries. As a result, there is less money available for healthcare, education, infrastructure, easing world hunger, and whatever else we can imagine to create a better world.

For those who would be out of work—I'm sorry, but find something else to do. That's what they told the textile workers, the steel workers, the farmers, and the auto workers.

When my grandchildren ask me someday—Grandma, did you stand up—did you speak out—I can say I at least did that much. You may not agree with me; there are plenty of others who do.

Women of the world are done sending their loved ones to be killed or crippled forever by physical and mental wounds. This is not the world we want for ourselves, our children, and our grandchildren. We urge all of our leaders to find another way.

Another world is possible!

COMMENTS:

It is not in the public interest for additional American troops to be sent to Iraq. This war is failing. ~~escalating~~ Escalating the war with more American soldiers will do nothing to protect or defend our national security, but will result in the death of more U.S. military personnel. Iraq is now experiencing a civil war and needs to be resolved by Iraqi citizens, not American troops. Additional troops will invite additional violence. Surely, ~~if~~ a first step should involve diplomatic regional measures. Secondly, ~~the~~ funding for development and reconstruction projects will bring more benefit for Iraq than sending for more U.S. military troops.

I am convinced that Montanans registered their displeasure with the current conduct of the Iraq war in the November 2006 elections. I believe Montanans strongly support a message of 'NO MORE' regarding the Iraq War.

COMMENTS:

This is response to Senator Shockley's comment opposing SJ 9.

Senator Shockley asserts that passing this resolution will damage the morale of troops in Iraq.

I submit that Senator Shockley does not speak either for the troops now serving in Iraq or for those who will go to Iraq in an escalation.

I can speak for my son. The thing that will most damage his morale will be sending him back to Iraq. His opinion was that the year he already spent in Iraq was futile and to no advantage in the conflict there. He does not see that his return to Iraq will accomplish anything whatsoever.

The best way to boost morale and protect troops is not to send them to Iraq at all. As our own troops the respect to use them in non-futile missions. The escalation is futile. It is entirely appropriate to send a
